

LEAVING A LEGACY TO CHORUS ANGELORUM IN YOUR WILL

Renowned for performing choral music of all varieties, Chorus Angelorum Chattanooga has fostered a commitment to diversity and inclusion within our choral community. For years, we have cultivated new audiences, developed a scholarship program, and, most importantly, provided quality concerts to audiences, both live and online, through our performances. Chorus Angelorum occupies a place of value and importance within the Chattanooga community. Our events and reach continue to grow, uniting our community in the joy of choral music.

As we look forward to the future, we are excited to imagine the possibilities. If you would like to support the continued growth of Chorus Angelorum Chattanooga, and our mission of accessibility, diversity, and inclusion, please consider leaving a gift in your will to Chorus Angelorum Chattanooga. Your legacy will help ensure that the beauty and inspiration of our music continues to flourish for generations to come.

There are several ways that you can give:

- A residuary gift: the residue (or a portion of the residue) of an estate after all other gifts, debts, and expenses have been paid
- A pecuniary gift: a fixed amount of money
- A specific gift: an identifiable asset such as a property or an investment

If you have already made a will, or have updated it recently, you can add a legacy or bequest to Chorus Angelorum Chattanooga by drafting a codicil. We have suggested wording below but recommend that you consult a solicitor to ensure that the will or codicil is valid, and your wishes are realized.

Please contact Treasurer, Trevor Wagoner (giving@chorusangelorumchatt.com) if you would like to chat about this option of supporting Chorus Angelorum. We would love to hear from you if you have already entered a clause in your will in respect of Chorus Angelorum Chattanooga.
